

Women Getting Wise on Wealth

A FINANCIAL SEMINAR SERIES FOR EMPOWERING YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH MONEY

MONEY IS IMPORTANT. After all, it can do everything from fill the fridge to help you start your own business. As a woman, you know this better than anyone. Chances are you make many to all of the money decisions. But how confident do you feel? Do you know what you need to know? Do you know the right things about growing, caring for and using your wealth.

That's why we've designed an annual financial seminar series just for you. Every year, we give you the opportunity to attend several very special programs – each designed to help you get wiser about your wealth.

You'll learn how to be a confident investor; how to talk about money with your partner; how to protect your wealth; you'll even discover your true meaning of money.

And, above all, we'll help you sort through all the advice that's "out there," so you can find what's right for YOU.

We hope you'll join us for the next event in the series:

A CRITICAL CORNERSTONE OF YOUR FINANCIAL FOUNDATION IS YOUR BUDGET.

In fact, budgets are the single most important tool for gaining control over your finances while decreasing the fears many of us share about money, security and the future.

Budgeting simply is the fastest and easiest way to manage your financial life with confidence and ease.

In this seminar you'll learn:

- Why budgeting makes a monumental difference in achieving goals.
- The secrets to creating a future-focused and anxiety-reducing budget.
- Budgeting mistakes and how to avoid them.
- How to find the hidden leaks that send future plans down the drain.

Plus, you'll walk away with all the tools you need to get started right away.

BUDGETING FOR A BOLD FUTURE will open the door to new ways of thinking about and working with your money – and making your money work for you.
