

REDISCOVERING ANNA ELLA CARROLL

Civil War Heroine

Event Series: Oct. 24, 25 & 26, 2013

Photo: MD Historical Society

Anna Ella Carroll (1815–1894) was an intriguing and atypical nineteenth century woman who was decades ahead of her time. Ultimately she emerged as a major figure at the national level in the male dominated realms of Law, Politics, and War, reaching the apex of her career during the administration of President Abraham Lincoln. Jointly sponsored by the Maryland Women's Heritage Center, the Maryland Historical Society, the Friends of Anna Ella Carroll, and partnered with The Star Spangled Banner Flag House, these four organizations take pride in bringing a series of 3 events to enlighten, educate, and entertain the public regarding Anna Ella Carroll's contributions to Maryland and her very special place in American history.

Thursday, October 24, 2013

5: 30pm

The Maryland Historical Society,
201 W Monument Street, Baltimore, MD 21201
Tickets: $10/nonmembers; $5/members, seniors, students, and military

Hear from authors and historians. Weigh in on the long-standing controversy about Anna Ella Carroll's role and importance during Lincoln's administration. Light refreshments will be served. For more information and to purchase tickets and reserve space please visit: www.mdhs.org/events

Moderator:

Charley Mitchell, author of Maryland Voices of the Civil War

Panelists:

Claudia Floyd, Professor of History and Political Science at Stevenson University and author of Civil War: Unionists, Rebels, Slaves and Spies
C.K. Larson, author of Great Necessities: The Life, Times and Writings of Anna Ella Carroll
Ed Papenfuse, Maryland State Archivist and Commissioner of Land Patents

maryland
historical society

Friends of Anna Ella Carroll

www.FriendsOfAnnaEllaCarroll.org / www.facebook.com/groups/AnnaEllaCarroll

INVISIBLE NO MORE: Women in the Military

Friday, October 25, 2013

1:00pm

The Maryland Women's Heritage Center
39 W. Lexington Street, Baltimore, MD 21201
Tickets: $10/$5 for seniors, students and military

Invisible No More: A Place for Women in Military History

Enjoy an "Eastern Shore" luncheon, and learn about the role of women in the military - from the Civil War to today. Gain information and join in action for the Purple Heart being proposed for Anna Ella Carroll. Discuss issues with Historians, military officials, and legislative representatives. Have lunch and participate in the program. For more information or to purchase tickets and reserve space please email Judi Williams at: jtech42@comcast.net or call: 410-812-9119

Moderator:

Ann Quasman, host of Woman Talk Live, WCBM
Discussants will include:

Frank Bittner, Friends of Anna Ella Carroll

C.K.Larson, Scholar of Military History

June A. Willenz, Author, Women Veterans: America's Forgotten Heroines

Saturday, October 26, 2013

1:00pm

The Star Spangled Banner Flag House Theater
844 E. Pratt Street, Baltimore MD 21201

The Baltimore Film Premiere of "Lost River"

Tickets: $5

"Lost River" - A pioneering film about Anna Ella Carroll, produced by film maker Bruce Bridegroom. Suitable for adults and children. For more information and to purchase tickets and reserve space please email Judi Williams at: jtech42@comcast.net or call: 410-812-9119.

www.mdwomensheritagecenter.org

"... when the story of this war is written, she [Anna Ella Carroll] will stand a good bit taller than ever old Charles [Charles Carroll] did."

- President Abraham Lincoln

- May 12, 1862

THE STAR
SPANGLED
BANNER
FLAG HOUSE